THE OLD AND THE NEW.
December's sun is low, the year is old;
Through fallen leaves and flying flocks of snow
The aged pilgrim climbs the mountain's side.
But look! the summit in the atmosphere
The fierce winds hold their breath; the rocks give
The stars look down to guide her up the height;
And all around her lonely footstep plays
Auroral waves of spiritual light.

THE ADVERTISER'S
In presenting ourselves for admission into your family we are fully aware of our own family's incompetency and when you know that a branch of the Salvation Army has for several months held semi-weekly meetings here, that we have a base ball club and a gun club, you will recognize these evidences of modern civilization, intelligence and refinement, and admit to the social position to which we are entitled.

IMPORTANT
Those taking the ADVERTISER on this date for this short time will in no sense be considered a regular subscriber, and every paper sent out on this special list will be stopped on the 1st of Feb. '87, unless otherwise ordered.

WE INVITE YOU TO CORRESPOND WITH US.
You are requested to give careful attention to the above plan, and in the shortest possible time, to send us a letter, in which you will give your views on the subject of the ADVERTISER. We will publish the same, and we will give you a valuable prize, if you are successful.
